Christel House
International

Christel House helps more than 3,000 children around the world break the cycle of poverty, realize their hopes and dreams, and become self-sufficient, contributing members of society.

The centers in India, Mexico, South Africa, Venezuela and the United States provide a challenging curriculum, instill universal values, encourage personal accountability and teach social responsibility and good citizenship.

As a result, all of the generations that follow will benefit from the Christel House focus on child, family and community. One-hundred percent of cash proceeds are utilized for programs and services directly benefiting the children.

The Colonial Virginia Council of the Boy Scouts of America

Since 1910 the Boy Scouts of America has established a heritage of developing young males through citizenship training, personal fitness, and character development. The Colonial Virginia Council serves 13 counties/cities with 10,000 youth and 3,500 volunteer leaders on the Virginia peninsula and the southside, including a recent emphasis on serving the needs of at-risk boys. Programs include Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, Venturing, Career Exploring, and the in-school Learning for Life character program.
